MISCELLANEOUS READING. GRASS WIDOWS IN INDIANA. A correspondent of the Dayton Journal, who has been travelling out in the Wabash

regions of Hoosierdom, discovered one peculiarity in every town be tarried in: "Speaking of grass reminds me of the fact that Indiana (and particularly the Wabash) is literally swarming with grass widows .-Every botel or tavern has or have had one or more of these bewitching vixens domiciled with them for ten days, which makes them citizens or residents of the State of Indiana, and, with a little hard swearing, natives too. At the expiration of ten days a suit is com-menced against some vile husband, and, as a matter of course, a divorce is granted, if for no other cause than incompatibility of temper. Here are congregated from all the States in the Union (except Illinois, which is a competitor for this profitable lawyer trade) all the disconsolate grass widows. A case I heard of in Peru, where the widow of a millionaire had come from Brazil, remained here ten days, got her divorce, with $100,000 of alimony, and would have had more, but old Crosses had no more in the United States that was comeatible."

YANKEE DOODLE.

The following letter has been received by gentleman of Boston from our secomlished Secretary of Legation at Madrid;

MADRID, June 8, 1858. My Dear Sir:-The tune Yankee Doodle, rom the first of my showing it here, has been acknowledged by persons acquainted with music to bear a strong resemblance to the popular airs of Biscay; and yesterday a professor from the north recognized it as being much like the ancient sword dence played on solemn occasions by the people of San Sebastian. He says the tune varies in these provinces, and proposes in a couple of months to give me the changes as they are to be found in their different towns, that the matter may be judged of and fairly understood. Our national air certainly has its origin in the music of the free Pyrenees; the first strains are identically those of the beroic Danza Esparta, as it was played to me, of brave old Biscay. Very truly, yours,

BUCKINGHAM SMITH.

WEALTH OF THE ANCIENT ROMANS. Some of these Romans seem to have been very "solid," while others were "fas." to a degree unknown now-a-days. When Casar was killed, on the Ides of March, Anthony owed £320,000, which he paid before the Kalends of April out of the public money, and squandered, according to Adams, £5,000, 000. Casar himself, before he set out for Powder, Teeth, Nail, and Hair Brushes; Buffalo Spain, was in debt to the extent of £2,018,-000. Lentulus possessed £3,229,166. Claudius, a freedman, saved £2,500,000. Augustus obtained from the testamentary dispositions of his friends (some people will leave their fortunes to their sovereigns) no less than £32.291,666 sterling. Tiberius left at his death the enormous sum £21,792,876, which Refined Salt Petre; Anice Seed; White Wax, just Caligula is said to have squandered in a single year. Vespasian estimated, at his accession, that the money which the maintenance of the Commonwealth required was £352,-

WESLEY AVERY, Collecto JOHN A. FIELD, Collector N. D. TOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADEL-PHIA.—A benevolent Institution, estabed by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and

Epidemic diseases.—To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHŒA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, &c. The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks. several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved mod ern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the atflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important but much despised cause.
